As these measures serve to restore and harmonise the body's own energy fields, they do not constitute a curative treatment. The mode of action and the success of energetic treatment have not been scientifically proven or, in the case of certain methods, disproven.

Accordingly, energetic counselling and work is not a substitute for medical diagnosis and treatment, nor is it a substitute for psychological or psychotherapeutic treatment or examination.

All statements and advice are not diagnoses but represent purely energetic descriptions of the condition.

Note regarding the Disability Equality Act: As I cannot offer you my rooms barrier-free, I offer you my energetic offers as a house visit directly at your home. In this case, I will only charge you the additional travel costs that you would incur if you visited me in my own rooms, saving you the travel time.

Thomas Seis
Human, animal and spatial energetics, Pan Gu Shen Gong – Instructor

Studies in Germany as a mental trainer. Spirit healer, health educator. Dowser/ Feng Shui consultant. Psychological and socio-educational counsellor, also for child, youth and developmental psychology. Course leader for autogenic training, meditation and PanGuShenGong. Dog whisperer. Further training as aura, chakra, reincarnation and wellness therapist as well as in radiesthesia, family constellations and kinesiology.

From my earliest childhood, I developed an interest in metaphysics and a gift for recognising problems and illnesses in other people through mediumship and finding solutions for them. My grandmother, a self-confessed "forest, meadow, herb witch", very soon initiated me into the secrets of the natural pharmacy and so my deep connection to nature and the 5 elements developed.

At the age of 5 1/2 I met my future, long-time Chinese "master", who carefully trained me step by step to become a Shaolin and taught me the Far Eastern philosophy and way of life. This had a significant influence on my spiritual development.

After leaving school, I started an intensive education/training by my master and thus became a world traveller, whereby I was also able to gain various practical life and professional experiences. I studied psychology, philosophy of religion, metaphysics and natural medicine in the USA, additionally trained in psychotherapy there and intensively studied Indian healing knowledge and my hobby, Wilhelm Reich's "orgonomy". I completed my Shaolin training in China with a longer stay in a monastery and studies of Chinese philosophy, religion and medicine (TCM). As a certified PGSG teacher and instructor (personal disciple of the well-known Chinese Qigong Grandmaster Master Ou Wen Wei), I offer PGSG especially in German-speaking countries.

My studies, training and further education, various activities all over the world and my work with countless needy people worldwide give me the necessary experience and inner peace, which I would now like to pass on to you in my seminars, workshops and courses.

14 years ago I settled back in Bavaria to pass on my skills and knowledge as well as my practical experience to interested fellow human beings.

I have been living in Leutasch/Tyrol for over 6 years now and would be very happy to welcome you to my energetic sessions, seminars, PGSG workshops and courses.

With much light and love in my heart,

Yours

Thomas Seis
